Quarterbacks say thanks

To the Editor:

On July 30, the third annual Card-Wolves Golf Outing and Silent Auction took place at Bent Tree Golf Club in Sunbury, Ohio. The event was sponsored by the Thomas Worthington and Worthington Kilbourne Quarterback Clubs.

This is one of the major fundraising events for both football programs and both clubs are very appreciative of the support from the many football families who participated. Wayne Snyder, WKHS QB Club President, and the TWHS QB President and their committee members extend their gratitude to more than 50 corporate sponsors who made this event possible. Special thanks to the event's committee members and many other event volunteers for their dedication and tremendous time commitment to make this such a successful event.

Worthingway teacher awarded for compassion

To the Editor:

As a member of the Distinguished Alumni Award Selection Committee, I thank the Worthington News for its coverage of this year's inductees. As his brother-in-law, I thank you for your coverage of Eric Gnezda's song, "True Heroes." But let me remind the community about a second very important award: The Gary Smith Compassionate Teaching Award. Given by the Gary's immediate family, including former wife Niki Gnezda, the award this year was presented to Worthingway teacher, Michelle Charity. The award is given yearly to a teacher who has "demonstrated outstanding compassion towards students and who have gone above and beyond normal efforts to help students with personal and academic needs."

The award, in its eighth year, has been a meaningful part of this annual staff meeting. The official award will be presented by the school board in September.

Tag Day fundraiser a success

To the Editor:

On behalf of the Worthington Kilbourne Band Boosters, I would like to say thank you to the community for their support of our recent Tag Day fundraiser.

Your generous donations ensured the success of one of the major fundraisers to support the ongoing expenses for the "Steppin' Wolves" Marching Band and the three curricular bands as they represent our community. The money generated from this fundraiser is used to support band scholarships, guest conductors, band uniforms, travel expenses to various musical performances, instrument maintenance and replacement and leadership training.

We are also pleased to announce that our Wind Ensemble has been invited to perform at Carnegie Hall in March of 2008 at the Spring Instrumental Music Festival. All
